

EVALUATION QUESTIONNAIRE

1

Q1. What does the term “dual transition” refer to?

- a) Two unrelated EU strategies
- b) The combination of ecological and digital transitions
- c) The duplication of education systems
- d) Two phases of industrialisation

2

Q2. What is the long-term goal of the European Green Deal?

- a) Build more data centres
- b) Climate neutrality by 2050
- c) Increase fossil fuel production
- d) Limit digital education

3

Q3. What activity helps students become aware of their digital footprint?

- a) Debate on the dual transition
- b) Awareness-raising exercise on digital footprints
- c) Mapping of daily habits
- d) Poster exhibition

4

Q4. Why is it important to link the objectives of the European Green Deal to school activities?

- a) To make political objectives practical and visible in everyday life
- b) To replace all teaching with EU reports
- c) To assess pupils' performance solely on the basis of EU objectives
- d) To increase the number of examinations

5

Q5. What is the main educational value of the Debate on the Double Transition?

- a) Train students to memorise EU laws
- b) Forces one team to always win
- c) Helps students practise critical thinking and understand trade-offs
- d) Shows that only digitisation is important

Participant name: _____

Date: ____ / ____ / ____ Score: ____ / 5

